1. This form is used for commencing a proceeding under s.476 of the Migration Act 1958 (Cth), including where an extension of time is also sought under s.477.
2. You must complete address for service details in the footer on page 1. All correspondence concerning the application will be sent to the mailing address inserted and all documents in the proceedings will be deemed to have been served on you if posted to that address. If your address details change, you must file a notice of address for service within seven days, and serve a copy on all other parties; see Rule 6.02.
3. Each ground of the application must identify a jurisdictional error by reason of which it is claimed that the decision under review is not a ‘privative clause decision’ within the meaning given by subsection 474 (2) of the Migration Act 1958. Particulars of each ground must be provided which are sufficient to allow the Court to understand how each ground relates to the decision, the reasons for decision, the circumstances of the decision, or the procedures concerned with the making of the decision, as the case may be.
4. The applicant must file one or more affidavits attaching a copy of the decision and any statement of reasons, and including any other evidence relied upon. 5. If the applicant is unable to raise an arguable case for the relief claimed, the application may be dismissed under Rule 44.12 without a final hearing.
6. If your application is for an extension of time or other interlocutory, interim or procedural orders in a proceeding which has already commenced, you should use the Application in a Case form.

The application and other documents may be served by delivering them to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship.
8. If you are completing this application by hand and you need more space in any section, attach extra page/s as required.
9. Once complete, you need to file the original and a copy of this application for each party to the matter with the court registry. The Court will keep the original and return the sealed copies to you. You will need to serve a copy on the other party or parties and keep a copy for your records.
